Custom Programming:

The IRS format allows for some customization for handling by utilizing special fields. All programming associated with customer sorting for no-mails or any special handling will be billed at quoted rate above the total cost of the 2009-2011 tax mailing. This is defined as any fields utilized uniquely by the financial institution and handling that is not standard for all MSI customers. Please define any special fields and their use by Dec 15, 2011.

The processing schedule will be agreed to by both parties prior to December 31, 2011.
